Wednesday, January 28, 2015

GLOBAL EXPERT EXCHANGE

14:00 – 16:00
Current realities of endovascular therapy in Latin America

CHARMAN:
Miguel Montero-Baker
Giancarlo Biamino

MODERATOR:
Frank Criado
Ralf Langhoff
Bruno Freitas

15:23 – 15:30
Initial real-world experience with absorbable stenting for tibial disease
Juan Barrera

15:16 – 15:23
The scientific renaissance of Colombia – a new global leader in endo innovation
Carlo Vallejo

15:30 – 15:37
Integration of ultrasound to optimize endovascular interventions

Larry Diaz-Sandoval

15:37 – 15:44
Mexico’s limitation regarding successful EVAR program: critical view and proposal of change
Luis Ricardo Sanchez Escalante

15:44 – 16:00
Discussion and conclusion

15:09 – 15:16
Brazilian techniques in peripheral intervention
Luis Virgen

15:02 – 15:09
Extreme access as means to avoid rising costs for interventions
Luis Alberto Cruz-Vasquez

14:07 – 14:14
The globalization of Latin America: a personal story which translates an era of change
Alejandro Fabiani

14:14 – 14:21
Keys to develop an endovascular limb-salvage program in a developing country
José Antonio Muñoza Prado

14:21 – 14:55
Live case transmission from São Paulo

14:55 – 15:02
Affordable (home-made) tools and tricks for crossing complex lesions (SFA and BTK)
Luis Morelli Alvarez

We are asking all faculty members to strictly respect the given time limits.
Wednesday, January 28, 2015

14:00 – 14:07  Introduction to the Latin America LINC panel and objectives of global integration
               Miguel Montero-Baker

We are asking all faculty members to strictly respect the given time limits.